CHUN TÚS A CHUR LE CÚRSAÍ BY WAY OF OPENING

At a time when life seems to be dominated by negativity and too much focus on 'what's in it for me' it's just heart-warming to report another great year for Club Tyrone.

Your contribution this year of £262,779 to the Tyrone Gaelic cause brings us to just over the £5m-mark in terms of your contributions since we set out on this journey together 23 years ago. It's an inspirational figure and is one that has underwritten Tyrone's many great achievements on and off the field over that time.

Without you, Gaelic Tyrone wouldn't be where it is now. And our County would be a poorer, less dynamic and less confident place. Club Tyrone does not happen by accident. It thrives because we have a County and people in it who know and appreciate what the GAA is and who are therefore very willing to support it so selflessly. We also have a County that's very well-managed by willing volunteers who put in the time and effort needed.

And finally, we have Club Tyrone, a collaboration of talented, selfless and totally committed people who just want to see Tyrone GAA do well and who will invest accordingly to help make that happen. Few people in life have the privilege of working with such people and to such an agenda. We are among the lucky ones who do.

RÁITEAS FÍSE WHAT WE'RE ABOUT.

BRABÚS + PAISEAN CHUIG CUSPÓIR MHÓR ... PROFIT + PASSION FOR A PURPOSE

This part of our Annual report changes little from year to year. That's because it goes to the heart of what Club Tyrone is about, spelling out WHAT we do and WHY.

In today's world people, and our young people especially, need structure, focus, support and a clear sense of WHO they are and WHERE they're from. Those key building blocks in life are what the GAA provides and it's in that context that Club Tyrone operates, as a dynamic coming together of special people to celebrate, promote and develop the games, language, history, heritage and culture of Gaelic Tyrone.

We do this by raising money (which we place under the full control of the elected Tyrone GAA County Committee) and by organising/delivering events, seminars, talks and publications with the aim of deepening our understanding of our place, our heritage and our Tyrone common bonds. We do what we do as willing volunteers because we cherish our Tyrone heritages, people and communities. We're also wedded to the fundamental GAA values of volunteerism, self-help, 'We not me' and 'Putting in, not taking out'. We draw no salaries, claim no expenses but just feel privileged to do what we do. For us the GAA is never about burdens.

We're not just precious about WHAT we do and WHY ... we're also precious about HOW we do it. We fit wholly and unequivocally within the Tyrone GAA governance structure, work to an approved annual work-plan, meet and report monthly to the Tyrone GAA County Committee and then to the annual Tyrone GAA County Convention. Our financials are audited as part of the Tyrone GAA audit process. We also report annually to our donors and this 2017 Report format once again reflects the important requirements of the Charity Commission for NI.

Club Tyrone Members gift £500 a year to help develop and sustain Tyrone's GAA vigour

Garvaghey Patrons donate £5,000, usually over five years, to put their mark on Ireland's best GAA concept, our County GAA Centre at Garvaghey

Dragain Thír Eoghain also donate £5,000, usually over five years, to help secure the playing and personal futures of our young people

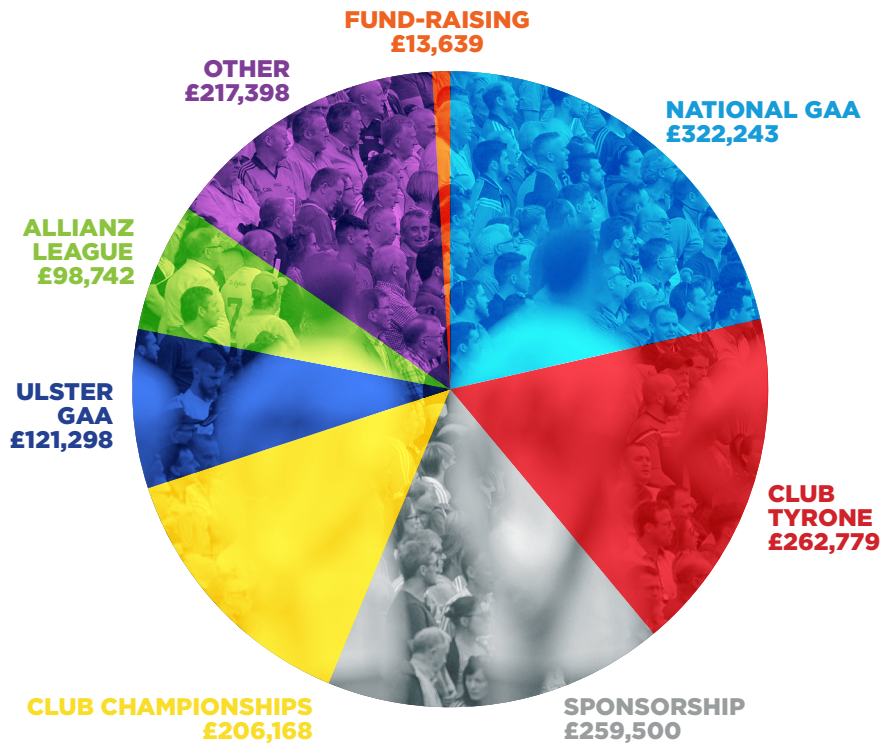

YEAR ENDED 31 OCTOBER 2017

TYRONE'S FINANCIALS

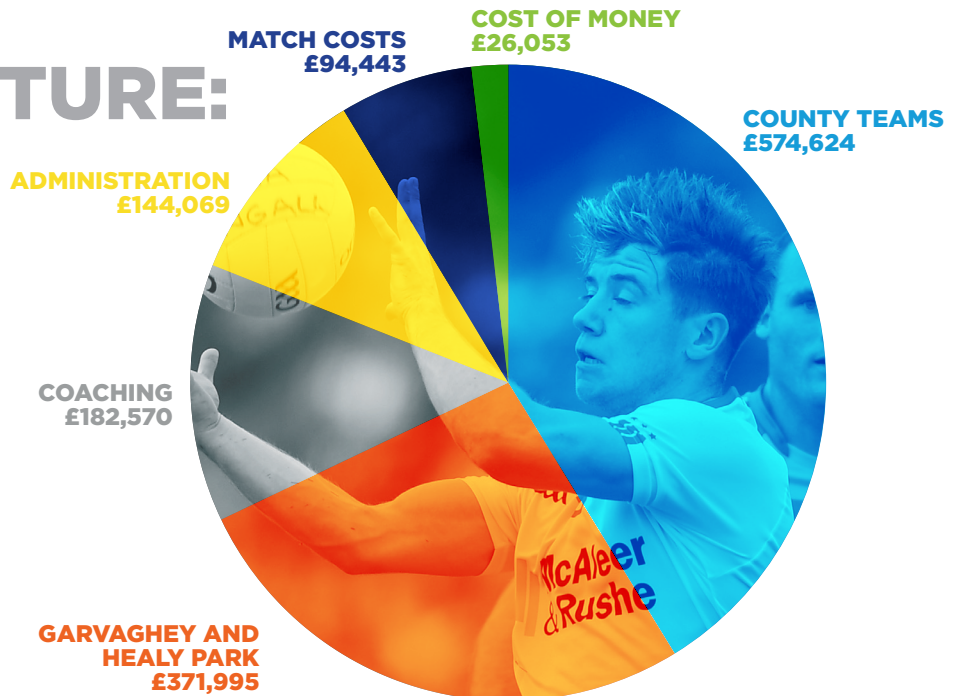

INCOME: £1.50M

Yet again Tyrone has posted a surplus (£108,013) after another year's intensive work. Our borrowings for Garvaghey have been simultaneously reduced over the past year by £212,000, from £1.226m to £1.014m.

WITH YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT WE'LL CLEAR THE DEBT ON SCHEDULE. BUT WE DO HAVE WORK TO DO!

EXPENDITURE: 1.39M

DIFRÍOCHT A DHÉANAMH MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Public benefit drives both the GAA and Club Tyrone. Club Tyrone made a difference in 2017 by supporting Tyrone GAA to:

PROVIDE AND MANAGE GAELIC SPORTING AND CULTURAL ACTIVITIES FOR

Deliver coaching in Clubs and Schools across Tyrone and through 53 Tyrone GAA Summer Camps involving over

4,000
CHILDREN

Prepare, organize and field seven different amateur adult and underage Football and Hurling teams to represent our County and its 182,000 people.

Acadamh
Thír Eoghain

Resource Acadamh Thír Eoghain, which continues to energise the sporting and personal development of 200

of our young people

Build pride and contentment in self, in community and in place for everyone living in Tyrone. We run our specific Club Tyrone events to improve people's appreciation and understanding of Tyrone as a place and of its people, history, culture and heritage.

Whilst primarily focused on Gaelic Tyrone we're committed to Tyrone in its entirety: we don't need to agree on our history to share it.

THALL Ó NA TOIM BEYOND THE BUSHES

In the Tyrone psyche home is always important. But for huge numbers of our people 'home' is something that's shared between Tyrone and some other part of our planet.

Because of that reality it's been an ambition to grow Club Tyrone beyond Tyrone and even beyond Ireland. And that ambition has been equally shared by stalwart Tyrone Gaels who find themselves far from home.

During 2017 we jointly undertook significant work to celebrate our common bonds and to build on our existing links and develop new ones. In July and August we launched Club Tyrone 'hubs' in New York and London and followed these launches up with wonderful fund-raisers in both cities in the autumn. In late October we were hosted by New York's Hudson National for a quite remarkable Golf Classic and followed that up in mid-November with a similar event in the Buckinghamshire Golf Club on the edge of London.

Our New York and London initiatives are on track to generate £100,000 for the Tyrone Gaelic cause. That achievement is essentially down to the relentless work and generosity of groups of committed Tyrone Gaels in those great cities. Gaelic Tyrone is indebted to them.

They don't forget us: we mustn't forget them. We firmly believe the links with our diaspora must be two-way and that we in turn need to make our contribution to Gaelic life there. Parallel with our 'exporting' of Club Tyrone we therefore plan next year to 'export' our Club Tyrone Summer Camps and possibly other coaching support to New York and London.

We will all need to work hard to make sure we get that right.

AN CHÉAD CHEIM EILE AR AN TURAS THE NEXT STEP ON THE JOURNEY

Part of Tyrone GAA's ongoing journey involves a significant development of coaching. Our new Acadamh Thír Eoghain is revolutionising how we develop our young players, leaving them better prepared not just for life on the field but for life off it as well. Whilst this is one of those journeys that never ends, in 2017 our Acadamh teams travelled well, winning 91% of their games (29 out of 32) and clinching a clean sweep of Ulster and All-Ireland Under 17 titles (the first ever played at that Grade).

We're now complementing all that work with a new £0.50m Performance/Activity Hub at Garvaghey, a facility which will help our players compete at the highest levels whilst at the same time facilitating a whole range of 'lower level' community-based well-being and fitness-related activities. During the year we finalized our plans for the Hub and obtained Planning Approval for it from the Fermanagh and Omagh Council.

Now we have to fund and build it. Those are strong challenges for all of us on into 2018 and beyond. But with your help we'll rise to them.

Our new Acadamh Thír Eoghain is revolutionising how we develop our young players...
